

Camp Fire Youth Participant Code of Conduct

Camp Fire's top priority is keeping our participants safe. We are committed to creating an environment for youth that is safe, nurturing, empowering, and that promotes growth and success. Any form of abuse or mistreatment of youth participants, staff, or volunteers is prohibited. Staff, volunteers, and youth participants shall not engage in the physical, verbal, or emotional abuse or mistreatment of any other staff member, volunteer, or youth participant. Use of abusive language, obscene or profane language, including racial, religious, or sexual references will not be tolerated.

Appropriate Verbal Interactions	Inappropriate Verbal Interactions
Age-appropriate jokes	Name-calling
Encouragement	Bullying
• Praise	Ridicule or humiliation
<ul> <li>Friendly conversation</li> </ul>	Compliments relating to physique or
Discussion about likes, dislikes, and	body development
needs	Discussing sex or sexual activity
Positive reinforcement	Cursing
Thrive{ology} language (growth)	Hazing
mindset, goal setting, reflection, sparks)	Off-color or sexual jokes
	Shaming
	Belittling
	Derogatory language
	• Games like Truth or Dare or Never Have I
	Ever

Appropriate Physical Interactions	Inappropriate Physical Interactions
Side Hugs	Full frontal hugs
Shoulder-to-shoulder hugs	• Kisses
Pats on the back or shoulder	Showing affection in isolated areas or
<ul> <li>Handshakes</li> </ul>	when one-on-one
High Fives	Lap-sitting
Touching hands, arms, shoulders	Wrestling
Arms around shoulders	Piggyback rides

Personal Relationships

Appropriate personal relationships between youth are encouraged. However, Camp Fire strongly discourages romantic relationship between youth participants while enrolled in Camp Fire programming. Youth are not permitted to sit on other's laps, give full-frontal hugs, or kiss other youth participants. Romantic relationships between youth participants and Camp Fire staff or volunteers are absolutely prohibited.

One-on-One Interactions

Camp Fire seeks to reduce or eliminate situations which involve one-on-one interactions between staff and youth participants, or between two youth participants. We follow the "Rule of Threes," requiring that there be at least three individuals present in any interaction with youth, to the extent possible.

One-on-one interactions may sometimes be unavoidable. In those situations where one-on-one interactions are necessary, we observe the following guidelines to limit the risk of inappropriate behavior:

• Whenever possible, meet in a public place where you are in full view of others.

- Avoid physical affection during one-on-one interactions. Ensure that all physical and verbal interactions align with the established policies for appropriate behavior, and are limited to the task at hand.
- If meeting in a room or an office, leave the door open or move to an area that can be easily observed by others passing by.
- Ensure that all one-on-one interactions are documented, especially if behind closed doors. Keep written records of these interactions (such as an incident report notes).

If you observe one-on-one interactions between a Camp Fire staff member and a youth participant, or have other concerns, please report them to our Camp Director, Gabby Bittner or our CEO, Amber Grundy (both can be reached at 574-387-6095), or to Praesidium's Anonymous Helpline (855-347-0751).

Electronic Communications

All communication between Camp Fire staff and volunteers with youth participants must be approved by the participant's parents/guardians, and must be in an open electronic environment. Staff members are prohibited from sending text messages to youth participants and/or replying to text messages from a youth participant. All email communications with youth participants must be directed to their parents or guardians, and/or their parent or guardian must be copied on all such communications. Staff and volunteers are prohibited from all other forms of electronic communication with youth participants, such as instant messaging or direct messaging through social media or gaming platforms.

Staff members and volunteers may not be friends with campers or youth participants on any social media platforms, before, during, or after camp ends, unless the staff member has a relationship with the camper established prior to their employment at Camp Tannadoonah (e.g., a relative, neighbor, or attended camp together in the past), and has verified that relationship with the Camp Director. Staff members must not request to be friends with, or follow, any youth participants on social media, and must decline any friend or follow requests from youth participants. Staff members may communicate online with youth participants only on the closed (and monitored) Facebook page set up by Camp Fire.

Alcohol, Drugs, Tobacco, and Controlled Substances

Possession and/or use of alcoholic beverages, drugs, tobacco, or other controlled substances while on Camp Fire grounds or at any Camp Fire program is strictly prohibited. Individuals will not be permitted to participate in any Camp Fire youth programming while under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or controlled substances. If a youth participant is found to be in possession of, or under the influence of, alcohol, drugs, or controlled substances, their parents, guardians, and/or appropriate authorities will be notified as necessary.

Bullying

Camp Fire further has zero tolerance for behavior that is classified under the definition of bullying and will take the necessary steps to eliminate such behavior. Bullying is defined as aggressive behavior that is (1) intentional, (2) repeated over time, and (3) involves an imbalance of power or strength.

Bullying can take various forms, including:

- 1. Physical bullying (hitting, punching, pushing, kicking, pinching, or restraining another individual)
- 2. Verbal bullying (belittling, name-calling, derogatory language)
- 3. Non-verbal or relational bullying (manipulation of a relationship to harm another person, such as social exclusion, friendship manipulation, gossip, intimidation through physical gestures)
- 4. Cyberbullying (an intentional and overt act of aggression toward another person by way of any technological tool such as email, instant messaging, text messages, digital images or videos, or website postings). Cyberbullying can include:
  - a. Sending mean, vulgar, or threatening messages or images.
  - b. Posting sensitive, private information about another person.
  - c. Pretending to be someone else in order to make that person look bad.
  - d. Intentionally excluding someone from an online group.
  - e. Hazing any activity expected of someone in order to join or participate in a group that humiliates, degrades, abuses, or endangers that person, regardless of their willingness to participate.
  - f. Sexualized bullying (sexting, exposures of private parts, sexualized language, or innuendo).

Anyone who sees an act of bullying and encourages it or does not intervene to stop it, is also engaging in bullying. This applies to all youth, staff, and volunteers.

Weapons

Camp Fire wants to provide a safe environment for all staff, volunteers, and participants in our programs. Any individual in possession of a weapon, or using any object as a weapon, or in a threatening manner, may be dismissed from Camp Fire programming.

Violence

Violence and threats of violence will not be tolerated at our programs, on our grounds, in our facilities, or in facilities being utilized for Camp Fire programming. Individuals who threaten violence will be asked to leave, dismissed from programs, and authorities contacted if appropriate.

Disruptive Behavior

Camp Fire cannot accommodate participants who display chronic or severely disruptive behavior. Such behavior may be grounds for dismissal from Camp Fire programs. Chronically disruptive behavior is defined as verbal or physical activity, which may include, but is not limited to:

- Behavior that requires constant attention from the staff
- Behavior that is destructive in nature
- Behavior that continually ignores or disobeys

Students may be dismissed without warning from Camp Fire Programs for behavior that inflicts physical or emotional harm on children or staff (i.e., verbally or physically threatening behavior, fighting, spitting, throwing objects that could harm others, etc.).

In general, a first offense is acknowledged by a verbal warning; the second by a written warning and a discussion with the youth participant about the consequences of continuing the behavior. At this point a parent will be notified. A third warning requires a meeting with the parent or guardian, and the final step may be either suspension for a specific period of time (a number of days, a week or weeks) or for the duration of the program. These steps may vary depending upon the severity of the misbehavior.

Vandalism

Vandalism of Camp Fire facilities will be grounds for dismissal from Camp Fire programming. This includes writing on surfaces in cabins and around camp, including, but not limited to, walls, ceilings, beds, mattresses, tables, chairs, and floors. Individuals who damage or vandalize camp property will be fined for each instance of vandalism, and authorities may be contacted when appropriate.

Reporting

It is imperative that everyone, including youth participants, parents, guardians, staff, and volunteers actively participate in the protection of the youth in our programs. In the event that an individual observes suspicious or inappropriate behaviors and/or policy violations on the part of staff, volunteers, or youth participants, it is their personal responsibility to immediately report their observations or concerns to our Camp Director, Gabby Bitter, or CEO, Amber Grundy. They can be reached at info@riverbendcampfire.org or 574-387-6095.