

CAMP FIRE GIRLS PLAN BENEFITS

Playmakers' Production and Valentine Bridge • Will Aid Camp.

Plans for two benefit entertainments for the proposed camp of the Camp Fire Girls' organization and election of one new member marked the meeting of the Camp Fire board Tuesday evening in the executive offices, Christman building. An offer from the Exchange club to assume financial responsibility for the new camp was also accepted. Joseph A. Avery, of the Exchange club, is the new board member.

The first benefit program will be given Jan. 29, when the Camp Fire board and council will sponsor the South Bend's little theater group Playmakers in a theatrical production in the Central Senior High school auditorium. Proceeds from the entertainment will be used in clearing the title of the present camp, Tanna-doonah, at Pleasant lake. The second program will be a Valentine benefit bridge in February.

Although no definite decision for the new camp site was made, it is generally assumed that a site at Birch lake, Mich., will be the final selection.

Committees for the Playmakers play was appointed by W. W. Borden, chairman of the board, as follows: Tickets, C. W. Copp; publicity, Mrs. Kathleen Armstrong; awards for selling greatest number of tickets, Miss Dorothy Eldredge.

Mrs. Floyd O. Jellison, Mrs. R. H. Nickerson and Mrs. Lawrence C. Ferguson will make arrangements for the bridge party. Further plans will be discussed at a called meeting Thursday evening.
