

GIRLS TO STAGE PUPPET SHOW

Entertain Today As Third Week Opens at Birch Lake.

Camp Tannadoonah, Camp Fire Girls' retreat on Birch lake, near Vandalia, Mich., begins today the third of its six weeks of camping. Last week Tannadoonah had a capacity attendance of 40 girls.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the dramatics and puppetry class will present a puppet operetta adapted from "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" for friends and guests.

A carnival Wednesday evening was a highlight of last week's program. After an outdoor supper the girls met in the Copatorium for a puppet show and exhibition of freaks. Miss Irene Poilack, camp nurse, assumed the role of fortune teller while campers spent paper money at other concessions.

On Thursday a party took an overnight boat ride on the lake. Miss Barbara Kantzer's dramatic classes presented a show Friday evening. Honors were awarded at a council fire Saturday night.

Among those attending this week are Bonnie Schlosser, Jean Romine, Patricia Orrison, Marjorie Maloney, Jane Obenchain, Annette Snoke, Martha Ann Buck, Jean Alison Roscoe, Joan Rummel, Ina Catherine Latta, Maxine White, Virginia Tobey, Miss Evelyn Welborn, Mary Barrett, Ruth Reynolds, Mary Rita Grundy, Margaret Grundy, Mary Frances Rees, Margaret Shick, Jane Balnikschein, Helen Rerick, Betty Rose, Betty Busse, Jeannette Barber, Betty Goldsmith, Janet LaRue, Ann Harder, Mrs. Evelyn DeLano, Natalie Hawkins, Laidie Enes, Ruth Mendenhall, Evelyn Schick, Norma Higgins, Anita Worsley, Dorothy Hayden, Louise Hayden, Pearl Doris Benz, Alice Harden, Leona Henderson and Eleanor Donahue.

The campers represent South Bend, Goshen, Plymouth, LaPorte and Niles.
