

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Thank You.

Camp Fire girls today extended a vote of thanks to Mayor Edward C. Went and other city officials for a tour taken by the girls Wednesday through the city hall offices, city court, police department and fire station. The visit to the various departments of the city hall was one of four city tours held by the group during the Christmas vacation period. Members who took the tour will receive citizenship awards. Mrs. John C. Kaiser, president of the Guardians' association, arranged the tours.

Camp Fire girls sold $7.48 worth of anti-Tuberculosis league Christmas seals in a booth in the post office the week prior to Christmas.

Poetry Contest.

Entries are being received for the poetry contest at headquarters, 107½ Lincoln Way East. Final date for entrance has been set for Jan. 10. Winning poems in the contest will be read on a national radio program. Judges for the local contest will be announced soon. Poems submitted must be written in ink or typewritten and should include the name, address, age, school and Camp Fire group affiliation of the author.

Saturday Craft Hours.

Craft classes will be resumed Jan. 8. Camp Fire girls, bluebirds and guardians are eligible for enrollment in the classes.
