

UP AT MIDNIGHT TO CELEBRATE

117 at Tannadoonah Close Camping Season.

Camp Tannadoonah, on Birch lake, near Vandalia, Mich., closed for the season Saturday after nine weeks' camping. The traditional banquet took place Friday when reveille at midnight aroused 117 girl campers and counselors to take part in a hilarious demonstration, with G. W. Hall as toastmaster.

Awards were presented to campers in a spirit of fun and for achievement. Special recognition was given Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bryant, who had spent their fifth season in the camp kitchen. Mary Elizabeth Jones, of Indianapolis, received recognition for illustrating the 1938 camp report.

The first edition of the Tannadoonah Tattler, camp newspaper, was issued at the banquet. The editor, Sheila Cohn, was assisted by Ruth Ann Mock, Dorothy Nold and Martha Ann Buck.

At the weekly council fire Friday Miss Dorothy E. Brown, camp director and executive, made awards. Counselors received the Tannadoonah symbol and honors were awarded in all crafts.
