

CAMP FIRE HEAD KEPT FOR 1939

Wilma Rea to Serve Fourth Year as Secretary.

Miss Wilma Rea, executive secretary of the local Camp Fire girl council, was reappointed for 1939 when the council executive board held its first fall meeting Monday afternoon in the headquarters. It will be the fourth year Miss Rea has held the post.

MISS WILMA REA.

It was announced that the council nominating committee of A. A. Brewer, Mrs. D. J. Campbell and Oscar Gilbert soon will present a slate of officers for next year. The leadership committee will convene soon to nominate persons to fill vacancies on the council. Miss Rea outlined the current national membership drive and reported extension committee, senior girls committee and summer activities.

Plans of the leadership committee of her group, a recent benefit flower sale for the blind staged by Camp Fire girls and the "know your city" tours of the spring and summer, were reported by Mrs. John C. Kaiser, representative of the Camp Fire Guardians association.

Camp Fire representatives will speak before schools and Parent-Teacher associations of the city this month and in November, it was announced.
